

Live Well. Do Good.
“Learn by Doing”
Titus 3:12-15

We see three separate parts of the series theme (Live Well. Do Good.):

Chapter 1: Love what is good.

Chapter 2: Teach what is good.

Chapter 2b–3: Do what is good.

What does “good” mean?

The Bible is NOT a list of “do”s and “don’t”s, but the Bible does give us clarity as to what God means.

Titus 3:14

Our people = believers

Learn = process

Devote = to set over, preside (have authority) over, guard

Doing what is good = taking action

Provide for urgent needs = love, care, hospitality of people

Not live unproductive lives = useless, not beneficial

Why should we do good? Because of the transforming work of the gospel.

As a believer, you are NOT only saved from your sin;
you are saved for a new way of living!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How often do you think about why you live the way you do?
2. Do you view the Bible as a list of “do”s and “don’t”s or as a guide to freedom in the way God wants you to live? Explain.
3. How does the clarity of God in Titus (and other passages) help you know what God wants from your life?
4. How has the gospel transformed your life:
 - How you think?
 - How you act?
 - How you love?
5. What do you think of the following statement? “A believer’s identity is as the Image of God.”
6. Our culture can be compared to Crete. How can you live out, in your specific life context, the Live Well, Do Good title of this sermon series?
